Benefits of Sponsoring the Open Source Technology Improvement Fund

Supporting OSTIF not only strengthens the open source software that we support, it also brings tangible benefits to our sponsors.

Social Media - Special shout outs to our supporters on social media pages, which have strong ties to a large community of like-minded people.

Advisory Council Membership - Sponsoring organization can appoint a person to join the advisory council. Regular updates on activities and the opportunity to give feedback to the company.

Steering Committee Membership - Sponsoring organization can appoint a steering committee participant. The representative will attend periodic meetings with the OSTIF staff and have direct dialogue with our managers.

Recognition throughout OSTIF's published work - Sponsoring organization's logo will be featured on all major documents created by OSTIF, up to and including research and development papers (see sample on the right).

Recognition on guide videos and other public-facing media - Sponsoring organization's logo along with special mentions will be included in all major videos published after sponsorship begins.
